P. 34 The trespass offering. (Lev. 5:1-19, Lev. 7:1-10)

4. He shall confess that he hath sinned in that thing. (Lev. 5:5)
   A. The sinner is nowhere asked to confess his individual sins (such would be impossible). (Rom. 8:7-8) He is called upon to accept God’s Word regarding his lost condition, confess himself a lost sinner, and turn to the Savior.
   B. The saint is called upon to confess that particular sin he has committed and trust the blood of Christ for cleansing. (1 John 1:9, Psalm 32:1-6, Dan. 9:20, Neh. 9:2, Ezra 9:5-15, 10:1)

3. Censors were to be lighted by live coals from the brazen altar. (Lev. 16:12)
4. All symbolizes God’s judgment upon those who would dare to serve Him without the blood sacrifice of Calvary.
   A. Worship, praise and prayer service, no matter how appealing to man or sacrificially rendered, is, in the sight of God, an abomination, and under His judgment, unless first kindled in the blood sacrifice of God’s beloved Son on Calvary. (Matt. 7:21-23, Rev. 3:15-17, Heb. 10:19-25, Acts 4:12)

THE GREAT DAY OF ATONEMENT

P. 36 And Aaron shall offer his bullock of the sin offering which is for himself—and make an atonement for himself and for his house. (Lev. 16:6)
1. Atonement simply means to cover.
   A. To cover the sins of Israel for one year. (v. 34)
   B. It was in anticipation of Calvary when God’s beloved Son would take away sin. (Heb. 1:3, 1 John 2:2, 2 Cor. 5:19, Heb. 10:4-14)
   C. A promissory note does not pay a debt, it merely covers it, and must be constantly renewed. In like manner, the blood sacrifice on the day of atonement was a recognition of debt to God, a promissory note which had to be renewed every year. It merely covered sin for the time being until the debt was fully paid by Jesus on Calvary. (Heb. 10:1-14)
D. Aaron, being as he was a sinner, could not properly represent God to Israel, or Israel to God until he first made atonement for himself and his house.
E. Our blessed Lord needed not to sacrifice for Himself, and his house.
F. Our blessed Lord needed not to sacrifice for Himself, as did Aaron, for in Him was no sin. (Heb. 7:26-27)

P. 37 And he shall take the blood of the bullocks and sprinkle it with his finger upon the mercy seat eastward: And before the mercy seat shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times. (v. 14)
1. In anticipation of Calvary and by virtue of the precious blood there to be shed God could righteously accept Aaron and his house for one year. In sprinkling the blood with his finger he signed the promissory note. He acknowledged his debt.
2. Seven times in anticipation of the complete, the perfect work of Calvary.
3. That the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy seat that he die not. (v. 12-13)
   A. As Aaron entered the holy place he was shrouded in the fragrance of incense.
   B. How blessed and secure our position before God’s throne; we are seen by God shrouded in the fragrance of His glorious work of intercession. (Heb. 7:25, Eph. 1:5-6)

P. 38 Aaron comes forth from the holy place to make atonement for the people.
1. Our blessed Lord came from God to settle, not for one year, but forever the sins of His people. (1 John 3:5, Heb. 1:3)

P. 39 Then shall he kill the goat of the sin offering, that is for the people. (v. 15)
1. The goat slain, speaks of that awful scene at Calvary when Jesus, became all that we are by nature and practice, that we might become all that He is. (2 Cor. 5:21, 1 Pet. 2:24, 1 John 3:2)

P. 40 And bring his blood within the veil, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat. (v. 15)
1. The blood sprinkled on this the great day of atonement; upon, and before the mercy seat, was the very basis upon which God could dwell in the midst of a sinful people.
   (see Ex. 12:12-13, Heb. 9:22)
2. The blood sprinkled on the mercy seat, in anticipation of Calvary, satisfied all the claims of God’s righteous throne and His holy nature against sin. (Rom. 3:25)
3. By virtue of the blood of Calvary, sprinkling the heavenly mercy seat, foreshadowed on the day of atonement. God is just and the justifier of him that believeth in Jesus.
   (Rom. 3:26)
4. By virtue of the precious blood of Calvary all our guilt is fully met, and forever settled, and all our needs satisfied. (John 5:24, Phil. 4:6-7)
5. It is only by virtue of the blood of Calvary that God can dwell on earth today not in temples made with hands, but in the hearts of all who trust Him. (1 Cor. 6:19-20, Eph. 2:19-22)
6. It is by virtue of the blood of Calvary that God allows sinful, often blaspheming man to dwell for a season on this His footstool. (2 Pet. 3:9)
7. Aaron’s body washed with water and robed in pure linen, with inner garments before God, and outer garments before man speaks of the spotless One in whom was no sin. (v. 4, Heb. 10:5-10, Matt. 3:17, Matt. 27:3-4, John 14:30)

8. Aaron, sprinkling the earthly mercy seat with the blood of beasts, was accepted by God only in view of what Christ Jesus would accomplish through His death on Calvary. When He would enter Heaven itself and obtain for all who believe not one year’s salvation, but eternal forgiveness and eternal salvation. (Heb. 9:11-14, Heb. 10:19-22)

Not all the blood of beasts
On Jewish altars slain
Could give the guilty conscience peace
Or wash away its stain

But Christ the Heavenly Lamb
Took all our guilt away,
A sacrifice of nobler name
And richer blood than they.

P. 41 And Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the children of Israel—putting them upon the head of the goat (v. 21)
1. Both his hands and all their iniquities. Aaron held nothing in reserve, no little sin that might afterwards be brought to light. (Heb. 10:14)
2. When God dealt with our sin at Calvary, He held nothing in reserve that could possibly be brought up at a later date. The work was complete.
3. Upon the head of the goat. Our Great High Priest took upon Himself the responsibility for all our sins, as though He had committed them, all our guilt, as though He were the guilty one. (Psalm 69:1-12, Isa. 53:5)

P. 42 And shall send him away by the hand of a fit man into the wilderness, and the goat shall bear upon him all their iniquities, unto a land not inhabited and he shall let go the goat into the wilderness. (v. 21, 22)

Note: Tradition says they may have pushed the “scape goat” off a cliff so it would never be able to return. God says to us who have trusted Christ alone (100%) for our salvation, He has removed our sins “as far as the east is from the west”. (Psa. 103:12)
1. Christ is here symbolized as carrying the sins of His people far away out of God’s sight and their sight, into a land forgotten. (Gal. 2:20)
2. Three precious truths press in upon us for our attention. We set them forth in the order of their importance:
   A. God is completely glorified and all the claims of His throne have been fully met in that His Son, through His death and burial, not only dealt with the penalty of the sin and sins of His people but carried them away from the sight of God to a land where He remembers them no more. (Rom. 3:25, 1 John 2:2, 4:10, Heb. 10:16-18)
   B. God is fully vindicated through the death and burial of His Son, in that the sin of the whole world is not partially but completely and forever taken away. (John 1:29) (This is the ground, the only ground, upon which a small child who dies before the age of accountability may enter Heaven.) Not now, or ever, can a soul arise to charge God with the responsibility for sin as Adam did, when he said, “The woman whom Thou gavest to be with me, she gave me and I did eat.” (Gen. 3:12, see 2 Cor. 5:19, Rom. 3:26)

C. The people of God are fully satisfied because Christ has borne away all their sins to a land uninhabited, never to be found, never to be sought out, to a place where they are altogether and forever forgotten by God. PRAISE HIS NAME. (Psalm 103:12, Isa. 44:22, Heb. 8:12, Heb. 10:17)

3. The resurrection of Jesus Christ is God’s seal upon all that He accomplished in His death and burial. (Rom. 1:4, 4:25, 10:9)

P. 43 And behold the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom. (Matt. 27:50-53)

1. The veil is a type of Christ’s flesh. (Heb. 10:19-20)
2. The veil was a constant and silent witness to Israel that God would manifest Himself in human flesh. (Isa. 7:14, Isa. 9:6, 1 Tim. 3:16, 2 Cor. 5:19, Col. 2:9)
3. The unrent veil barred man’s access to God.
   A. Christ’s body shut man out from God. (John 14:8-9, John 12:24)
4. To admire the veil, its cunning workmanship, did not give access to God.
   A. To admire the person of Christ, His character, His works, etc., does not give access to God. The veil (His flesh) must be rent.
5. To endeavor to live like Jesus will not give access to God.
   A. His body must be rent.
6. The Incarnation does not give us access to God.
   A. Had Jesus returned to Heaven without His death, how helpless we would be, forever excluded from God’s presence.
   B. His body must be rent.
7. Jesus did not push the veil aside.
   A. He rent it. (Matt. 5:17-18, Rom. 10:4)
   B. Signifying that a new and living way to God is now open. (Heb. 9:19-20)
8. Rent from top to bottom.
   A. Rent by God’s hand. (John 10:18, Matt. 27:51)
9. Rent while hanging between God and man. (John 12:32-33)
10. As much the act of God as His incarnation, resurrection and ascension. (Psalm 22:15, 38:2, 42:7, 88:7, 16, 102:23, Isa. 53:10 Lam. 1:12-14, Matt. 26:31)
11. When veil was rent, it was changed from a barrier to an open way into the Holiest of all.
   A. When our Lord’s body was broken on Calvary, the way was open for all who will to enter Heaven. (Luke 23:42-43, Heb. 9:11, 12:24)

P. 44 Hymn.

What can wash away my sin,
Nothing but the blood of Jesus.
What can make me whole again,
Nothing but the blood of Jesus.
